Kobus Oberholster is an accredited Financial Advisor from Attooh.

Many people find themselves in the same position where they think realising their financial dreams and goals are not possible, hence the decision back in 2001 to start my career as a Financial Planner. Farming and Financial Planning are quite opposites to each other but I realised then that I will be able to teach people the knowledge and skills to become successful and achieve their financial aspirations and goals.

I am convinced that I do make a difference in people's lives through my specific approach to them as person and their specific needs in terms of Financial Planning. I was blessed since then to meet numerous people and given the opportunity to make a difference in their lives through my knowledge, services and products as part of their Financial Planning.

I am the co-author of the Number 1 Amazon Best Seller book, "The Ordinary Millionaire".

This book is a unique collaboration by a number of financial advisors from the attooh! Group of Companies combining our expertise under the leadership of Wouter Snyman to produce a book packed with financial wisdom that is relevant for every individual wanting to embrace the philosophy's shared and steps highlighted to walk the journey to financial independence.

Zandile Buthelezi General Manager: Projects at African Exploration Mining and Finance Corporation

Zandile Buthelezi obtained her BSc Geology Honours degree at University of Witwatersrand and is currently studying towards obtaining her MBA with Wits Business School.

Zandile lifelong interest in geology and the natural world really commenced in 2000 during her final year of secondary school where she had a great teacher of science. Subsequent undergraduate and post-graduate studies in geology were undertaken at the University Witwatersrand where she undertook degrees in Geology in 2001 and MBA in 2016.

In 2006 Zandile joined Anglo Coal (now called Anglo American) as their Senior Geologist where she performed tasks of a mine geologist, modelling geologist, grade control, exploration and forward prospecting.

In 2008 she then joined Xstrata coal (now called Glencore) as their Divisional Geologist where she managed the geology department at SouthStock complex ( which had three underground mines South Witbank, Tavistock and 5 seam UG operations). Zandile was responsible for monthly reconciliations of quality mined, training and development of the grade controller who was reporting to her. She was also responsible for the drilling contracts, planning the exploration programme and making sure they adhere to the Xstrata Safety procedures and policies.

She then furthered her career growth and joined African Exploration Mining and Finance Corporation as their Chief Geologist where she was then recently promoted to her current role as General Manager.

A fervent advocate of the value of professional and learned societies, Zandile is also a member of the South African Council for Natural Scientist Professions.

Noma Gigaba: Business Executive at Gijima Technologies

Noma Gigaba wife to Home Affairs Minister Malusi Gigaba, Fashion icon and mother of two handsome boys, she holds a Degree in Computer engineering.
